

Job Vacancy & Work Scope

Science Facilitator

SCIENCE FACILITATOR EXHIBITION & EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Department: Exhibition & Education Department

Job Title: Science Facilitator

Number of Position(s) Available: 2 positions (Part-Time)

Role Objective

The Science Facilitator roles are responsible to assist with the daily routine and scheduled activities for the Exhibition & Education Department. Most of the main tasks are in the Exhibition Hall, working with and manning the exhibitions, managing crowd control for visitors such as school visit, tourists and visitors. Additionally, Science Facilitators must assist the Science Communicators with preparation and facilitating of activities or other tasks.

Key Tasks and Responsibilities

- Conduct STEAM activities at SEL and during any outreach engagements.
- Assist with manning and facilitation with interactive exhibition.
- Assist with research and development of new STEAM activities or projects.
- Assist Science Communicators with project management and delivery.
- Maintain a safe and healthy working area by following all HSE guidelines and policies established by SEL.

Skills Required or Preferred

- Basic research skills.
- Teaching and facilitation skills.
- Communication and presentation skills.
- Able to work in a team.
- Customer service skills.
- Creative and innovative.
- Flexible and eager to learn new skills and knowledge.

Background Requirement

- Cambridge 'O Level' and above.